Dear Mr. Angleton:

We on the History Staff are beginning to wind up our preliminary draft of the Richard Helms history. In this regard I would find it most helpful if I could have another hour or two with you sometime between now and the end of the year. Specifically, I need some guidance on certain matters pertaining to [Redacted] during the Helms years.

I dare impose further on your good nature in this fashion because your assistance last summer has proved so invaluable to our efforts.

If you are still interested in reviewing the transcript of our session this summer, I could bring that out with me when we get together. I also want to return the copy of Pete Bagley's testimony which you loaned me.

Suppose I give you a call toward the end of this week to see if you would be able to meet with me once more.

Sincerely yours,

[Redacted]

Staff Historian
